BOARD FORBIDS WAIVERS ON ANY COUNTY MONEYS

Treasurer And Clerk Say They Have Not Been Approached

The Lee county board of supervisors voted unanimously this morning ordering the County Treasurer and all members of the board to refrain from signing waivers on public funds on deposit in banking institutions of the county which are now open under conservatorships. County Treasurer Sterling Schrock appeared before the board at the morning session and explained the legislation which affects his office. At the same time he inquired the sentiment of the board in the signing of waivers on public funds now on deposit in banks of the county which are open under conservators, but added that no such request had been received by him from any of these banks.

Supervisor William Burhoun of Bradford township presented the motion to the board. County Clerk Fred G. Dimick also explained to the board that he had certain accounts on deposit with banks which are open for partial transaction of business, but stated that thus far no waivers had been asked of him. Board members expressed the same opinion regarding his case as concerning the county treasurer, although a vote was not taken.

Got Resolution
The board yesterday afternoon voted to reduce the bonds of County Superintendent L. W. Miller from $30,000 annually to $12,000 to comply with those of surrounding counties.

Dr. W. F. Aydelotte of this city, president of the Lee County Taxpayers Association, appeared before the board yesterday afternoon and presented a resolution in which an additional reduction in valuations was the amount already announced by the board of review for this year, was sought. The resolution was tabled by the vote of the board. Dr. Aydelotte was again before the board for a very brief period this morning. The resolution:

To The Honorable Board of Review
Supervisor Walter Ortgiesen, Chairman.

WHEREAS the state tax is fixed by the Governor, the State Auditor and the State Treasurer, authorities outside the county, and

WHEREAS valuations of property are fixed by our township assessors under the direction of our supervisor of assessments and realized by our Board of Review in cooperation with the taxpayers, and

WHEREAS the law requires that valuations be the "fair cash" value in each county—uniform—when valuations in one county are permitted to be out of line—not uniform with other counties—an inequitable state tax results, and

WHEREAS it is the duty of the state tax commission to equalize valuations as between the counties since they have failed to do so as shown by their figures in their 14th Annual Report to the Governor, page 26, table 4, it becomes the duty of the local tax authorities through his county board of supervisors here assembled to support his county officers in making such a reduction of valuations as required in his county to provide an equitable state tax each year, or valuations in all counties must be reduced uniformly each year so that the county lagging penalizes its taxpayers and an unjust higher state tax follows from which, when lowered, the taxpayer has no redress, and

WHEREAS the governmental exorbitance in economics, the extreme unsettled conditions of business, particularly banking, the reduced money in circulation, the high price of manufactured commodities necessitating yet more money than is in circulation making it hazardous to our county and immunity to allow any more tax money to go out of the county than is equitable and strictly necessary, and the enormous sums demanded for welfare relief due to unemployment and inequitable taxes, and

WHEREAS said equitable valuations of property within our county necessitate a change of the tax to provide adequate funds to tax body within the county which body or bodies have their remedy in suitable legislation possible of enactment in special session of general assembly to be called by Governor Horner October 3, or election to increase rates required, and

WHEREAS government is a collection shared by each man, woman and child alike it behooves each of us, both as citizens of our county and as taxing and governmental bodies, to patriotically accept the responsibility and personal limitations of reduced income as would make the burden of the monstrous depression bearable our citizens who are compelled provide the necessary funds, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that we, the Lee county Board of Supervisors assembled this thirteenth day of September in the year of Our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-three, recommend that the Lee county board of Review, Supervisor Walter Ortgiesen, Chairman.

It's Lotus Time in—Toledo

It looks for all the world as if this pretty mermaid had bobbed to the surface in the river Nile to pick herself a bouquet. For those are real lotus blossoms, fit to flatter Cleopatra. But the truth is Miss Lucille Dehnhardt is gathering the rare blossoms in the Maumee river near Toledo, O., only place in the U. S. where the lotus thrives wild. Seeds brought back from the Nile 50 years ago started it all.

TWO MILK COWS, STRUCK BY CAR, ARE DESTROYED

Chicago Woman Driver Unable To Pay For Loss Of Animals

Two valued milk cows belonging to the Fred Drew herd, were injured so badly last evening about 5:15 when they were struck by an auto that both had to be shot. The cattle had left the Love's Lane road and were crossing the Lincoln Highway paving just west of the Dixon Municipal airport when a car driven by Mrs. Jeanne Harrington, 1744 Albion Avenue, Chicago, west bound, crashed into the herd. One of the animals was reported to have been thrown into the air a distance of about 15 feet it being the first to be struck.

The force of the impact turned the car around on the paving and before the power could be shut off it struck another cow, which was knocked down and rolled under the machine, both rolling into the ditch. Both of the cows were shot a short time afterward when it was discovered that their legs had been broken and they were otherwise badly injured.

Mrs. Harrington, who was en route to Des Moines, Iowa, to accept a position, was taken to the county jail, where it was stated that the car she was driving was not insured and that she was unable to pay Mr. Drew for the animals. A warrant was issued by Justice Grover Gehant and attorneys consulted for some time when the woman was released.

The front end of the sedan she was driving was badly damaged necessitating the removal of the car to a local garage. Mrs. Harrington planned to return to Chicago today.

These included: Anna State Hospital, $69,000; East Moline State Hospital $30,000; Elgin State Hospital $67,487; Geneva Training School for Girls $14,000; Normal Illinois Soldiers & Sailors Childrens School $54,000; Wilmington, Soldiers' Widows' Home $39,000; St. Charles School for Boys, $30,000.

Will Tax Whiskey All It Will Stand

Washington, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A revamping of the internal revenue and tariff laws to raise approximately $70,000,000 a year in event prohibition is repealed was forecast by Chairman Harrison of the Senate Finance committee today as one of the important tasks facing the next session of Congress.

Harrison told newspapermen the revision of those laws would be necessary because "it looks like the requisite number of states are coming in on repeal."

"I want to see as much revenue raised as the industry will stand," he said adding:

"We ought to get at least $500,000,000 in internal revenue taxes from liquor and wines, and it now looks as if we will get $200,000,000 a year on beer."

City Clerk Must Publish List Of Delinquent Lands

City Clerk Blake Grover was today advised by City Attorney Martin J. Gannon as to his duties requiring publication of lots and tracts on which special assessments are delinquent, as follows:

"I appreciate the conditions as they now exist and that it is difficult for many people to pay their taxes, but you are an officer under bond and you must follow the law."

"I am therefore of the opinion that you have no power to withhold any lots or tracts from being advertised for delinquent special assessments."

MANY MATTERS TO COME BEFORE ILLINOIS SOLONS

Talk Of Repeal Of The Sales Tax Already Heard In Capital

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 14.—(AP)—In drafting his call for the October 3 special legislative session, Governor Horner is faced with the problem of reconciling his desire to hold subject matter to a minimum and the growing list of issues pressing for attention.

Just when the formal call will be issued had not been decided today. It is being carefully drafted, while the assemblymen know that in nineteen days they must return to Springfield.

The September crisis is unemployment relief financing and the necessity of providing taxation and regulation of hard liquor are of primary importance. Without them the legislators probably would not be called back into session.

But since the Governor has promised federal officials that he will ask for passage of a $30,000,000 relief bond issue, he has been urged to permit legislative action on a half dozen or so additional matters that otherwise would be delayed until after the 1934 election.

The first was requested from Washington. Public works officials asked that counties be empowered to act locally in the slum eradication-housing program of construction work. This will probably be included with relief in the October 3 call.

Present plans are to defer other matters until a second session, when the state liquor commission will make its report on what should be done if and when prohibition is repealed.

Two suggestions came from Attorney General Otto Krumer. One is for the repeal of the Illinois anti-trust laws, which are out of harmony with the NRA movement.

The other is for enactment of the bills, which were lost in the June snarl as the regular session adjourned, for state supervision defaulted mortgage bond issues so as to protect investors from losses in the activities of receiverships and bondholders' committees.

Must Validate Law
Illinois officials of the Federal Home Owners Loan Corporation want the authority to invest in their bonds to be granted to state building and loan associations. This would speed up the refinancing program designed to lessen mortgage foreclosures.

State Federation Of Labor In Plea For Settlement Of Cement Price Controversy In Illinois

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(AP)—The Illinois State Federation of Labor today adopted a resolution urging settlement of the controversy between the State of Illinois and the cement mills over prices to be paid for cement used on highways.

The resolution said the cement industry in the state employs about 1,500 men and that it also provides a market for large quantities of coal produced in southern Illinois. Settlement of the matter would bring considerable reemployment, the resolution stated.

The 600 delegates at the convention then turned toward consideration of inflation, with a two-hour discussion scheduled.

A resolution calling for sufficient inflation to restore 1926 price levels was not given a vote, a committee deciding that it should be referred to the national federation for consideration.

The convention adopted another resolution calling upon organized workers to enter more deeply into politics, to push labor legislation, and to elect candidates favorable toward labor policies.

BETTER TIMES COMING TO DIXON

The impending reorganization and reopening of the City National Bank in Dixon presages a revival of prosperity in this community which should bring heartening encouragement to every citizen. Dixon has not been particularly hard-hit during the depression if we judge by comparison with other cities. One of our banks, the Dixon National, was reopened after only a brief holiday, and some of our larger industries, such as the Reynolds Wire Company and the Borden plant have been towers of strength in the matter of employment of labor. But there have been plant shut-downs and plant removals which have severely crippled the wage earning power of our people and the restrictions imposed upon the deposits of the City National bank have not been the least of our difficulties.

However, the end of our bank difficulties is here, and with the cooperation and support of the depositors and stockholders of the City National, that bank will soon be open for regular banking business and then Dixon may boast of two fine, strong and dependable banking institutions, a situation than which no comparable city can boast a better one.

The terms of the reopening plans demanded by the Treasury Department at Washington are easy to comply with and afford the utmost protection for depositor and stockholder. The waiver of forty-five per cent of the deposits is a necessary protection and this forty-five per cent can be released to the depositors as soon as better times have made possible the liquidation of the valuable but at present non-liquid assets of the old bank.

As for the stock subscriptions which old stockholders are required to make and which depositors are urged to make, that is likewise necessary before the bank can be reorganized and opened, the new bank stock is considered a good investment. It has no double indemnity feature and is non-assessable. It is stock in a new bank, upon the condition of which the U. S. Government has placed its stamp of approval.

To the officers and directors of the bank whose untiring efforts have resulted in this highly commendable arrangement and to those public spirited and loyal depositors and stockholders whose cooperation is hastening the day of the complete reopening of the bank belong great praise. The reopening will release approximately one million dollars of deposits, the value of which, to individuals and to business in general, is inestimable. This is the turning point in the depression in Dixon. Better times are coming back, right now. They are not around the corner, they are knocking on our door. And those individuals who, as stockholders and depositors in the City National Bank, make it possible for the bank to reorganize are responding to the knock and opening the door to let prosperity in.

NEW PRESIDENT OF CUBA PLANS IRON-CLAD RULE

Is Expected To Demand Dictatorial Power From Congress

Havana, Sept. 14.—(AP)—President Grau San Martin worked today on a manifesto in which his confidants expected him to demand dictatorial powers for combating disorders.

Opposed by veteran political leaders, plagued by labor troubles, and unable to pacify 500 officers who insist his predecessor be reinstated, the executive was said in palace circles to be ready to use state reasons for iron hand policies.

Police reserves, meanwhile, were held in readiness here. They were armed with rifles, but no reason for the action was announced.

Dissension Reported

At the same time rumors circulated that the army faces dissension in its ranks. Two soldiers died violent deaths in the last 24 hours, one a suicide and the other the victim of unidentified machine gunners.

Several unidentified persons attacked the Ninth police station and gravely wounded a student on duty there.

Strikes continued in Antilla, Baguanos, Tacajo, Christo, and Oriente province towns with unrest prevalent.

Those who believed the executive will establish a dictatorship pointed out that his revolutionary cabinet included nobody who participated in earlier mediation efforts and, backed by students, had embarked on an intensely nationalistic course.

Official pronouncements have attached primary importance to public order and Secretary of State Hull has said American recognition will be extended only to a Cuban government able to maintain peace.

"Yankees" Decried
Posters throughout Havana today attacked American policies and "Yankee imperialism."

In Cristio, a mining town near Santiago, a number of Americans were prevented from leaving by striking manganese miners. American authorities were advised that a resumption of serious labor troubles was probable in Santiago.

A pair of wrens, near London, Texas, made their nest under the seat of an automobile and hatched out six babies, in spite of the fact that the auto was driven three miles to town and back, daily; the parents usually waited at the farm until the car returned with the nest.

ROBERT LOFTUS NOW INMATE OF CHESTER PRISON

"Sweet Lips" Escaped Facing Murder Accusation

Chester, Ill., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Robert "Sweet Lips" Loftus was in the state penitentiary here today serving a sentence of from one to 14 years for assault growing out of an attempted grocery store robbery and had for the time being, at least, escaped extradition to Indiana on a more serious charge.

He was sentenced yesterday at Taylorville and brought here last night. Previously, authorities of LaPorte county, Indiana, identified him as one of the three bandits who robbed the LaCrosse, Ind. State Bank as $918 last July and killed the cashier, W. E. Pennell.

The Indiana officials were told that Loftus would fight extradition on charges of murder and did not press their case.

"Since last March 31 Loftus has led an exciting existence. It was on that day that the grocery store robbery occurred in Taylorville and Loftus was captured on the scene by a clerk who struck him a blow over the head that injured him.

Then he was taken to a Springfield hospital from which he escaped a few days later and was not apprehended until last Friday at Rockford.

BEER TAXES TO STATE MILLION AND A QUARTER

August Revenue From Beverages Showed Big Increase

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Assistant Finance Director J. M. Braude today announced that more than $1,250,000 in revenue has been received by the state from the new tax licenses on legal beer.

Receipts for August exceeded July by approximately $21,000. Braude said, adding that "indications are that receipts for September, based on August sales, will equal, if not exceed this figure."

The two cent a gallon tax on malt and vinous beverages brought $12,237.78 into the Treasury during August, compared with $151,398.03 collected in July.

"After September collections are received," Braude said, "we anticipate a steady decrease in revenue until the return of warm weather next year. Money received by the state from its malt and vinous beverage law goes into the general revenue fund of the state treasury."

Licenses to sell beer at retail had been issued to 16,042 persons by September 1, an increase from 14,614 during August. Seven brewers, making a total of 27, and 63 importing distributors were licensed last month.

The U. S. Patent Office will not receive applications for a patent claiming perpetual motion unless accompanied by a working model that demonstrates beyond all doubt that it will operate as claimed.

RIOTING EARLY TODAY RESULTS IN CASUALTIES

Sixteen Men Wounded In Fight At Frick Company's Mine

BULLETIN
Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Marching orders for two battalions of National Guardsmen were drafted hurriedly and secretly today as Governor Pinchot moved quickly to play the Fayette county soft coal district under virtual martial law for the second time in ten weeks.

SIXTEEN MINERS SHOT

Uniontown, Pa., Sept. 14.—(AP)—Sixteen men were shot and more than a score beaten and stoned today as rioting at three mines signaled the official start of a mining "holiday" in the southwestern Pennsylvania soft coal field.

"The trouble flared at the Gates, Edensborn and Potedale mines, all owned by the H. C. Frick Coke Company, as pickets tried to prevent men from entering the pits. The most serious clash was at the Gates mine. It was there that all 16 men were shot.

Pickets were reported to have stoned miners going to work. Deputy Sheriffs, heavily armed, got into an argument with Louis Kromer and one of them pushed him. As other pickets advanced the deputies threw tear gas bombs and the pickets hurled them back. Fighting broke out, clubs fell and stones were thrown. Then the deputies opened fire.

Got In Gun Range

Mike Outwright, a deputy, got in front of a fellow officers gun, pickets said, and his left arm was blown off. After the outbreak, the ground was strewn with wounded. Ambulances sped to the scene and the casualties were brought to a hospital.

At Edensborn, John Garrow, 40, suffered a broken arm and a fractured skull during a two-hour riot. Mike Savage, 46, has a broken arm and lacerated head. Both were hurt while trying to prevent men from entering the mine. A score of others were injured less seriously at Edensborn.

John Cochran, 35, and several other pickets were clubbed and stoned at Potedale.

After the excitement at Gates quieted down, Thomas Vidovich, John Brumsik and Ed Rusky, three pickets who were in the thick of the melee, said the deputies began firing after Mike Donovan, mine superintendent, shouted:

"Let 'em have it!"

Accuses Deputies
"Then guns began blazing all around us," Vidovich said. "They threw tear gas bombs into the crowd as they ran down the railroad tracks near the mine entrance and fired into us. One of the wounded men fell on the track. A freight train was coming and we barely got him off the tracks in time because they were throwing tear gas at us."

At the offices of the Frick Company it was said that the firing started after the strikers had stoned the deputies and men who wanted to go to work.

State police in Uniontown were not informed of the rioting until a half hour after it was over.

TO SPEED COAL CODE

Washington, Sept. 14.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today sent federal agents to Uniontown, Penn., to cooperate with Governor Gifford Pinchot's representatives in an investigation of the shooting between mine guards and miners.

At the same time, Roosevelt ordered immediate conclusion of the negotiations for a code for the bituminous coal industry.

He called Hugh S. Johnson, Industrial Administrator, to the White House, and it was stated there that the President expects "to make an announcement on the coal code late today."

Stephen T. Early, secretary to the President told reporters "the President feels that the time has come, after weeks of delay, to get action."

Roosevelt acted after a lengthy conference with Attorney General Cummings, Secretary Perkins and Governor Pinchot.

Upon leaving the White House, the Pennsylvania Governor said he would seek further details of today's shooting in which 16 men were wounded and would declare martial law in the district "if it is necessary."

Waits Official Report
The White House expects the official report on the shooting by tonight.

Early gave out the following statement: "The Departments of Labor and Justice, by direction of the Secretary of Labor and the Attorney General, have sent representatives to Uniontown to cooperate with Governor Pinchot's representatives."

They have been instructed to investigate at once and report this morning's shooting. We should get their reports this evening.

"The President will confer with General Johnson and expects to make an announcement on the coal code late today. He feels that the time has come, after weeks of delay, to get definite action."

The University of North Carolina this year sponsored the state's first dogwood festival.

AROUND THE CORNER

ROUND the corner I have a friend
In this great city which has no end;
Yet days go by and weeks rush on,
And before I know it a year is gone,
And I never see my old friend's face;
For life is a swift and terrible race
He knows I like him just as well,
As in the days when I rang his bell
And he rang mine. We were young then;
And now we are busy, tired men—
Tired with playing foolish game;
Tired with trying to make a name.
"Tomorrow," I say, "I will call on Jim
Just to show that I am thinking of him."
But tomorrow comes—and tomorrow goes;
And the distance between us grows and grows.
Around the corner—yet miles away
Here's a telegram sir," Jim died today!
And that's what we get—yes, dear—
And that's the end—
Around the corner, a vanished friend.
—Charles Hanson Towne.

These were introduced by the local pastor, Dr. Albertus Perry, who also gave a brief talk. During the fore part of the afternoon these pastors met in conference with the district superintendent, Dr. L. L. Hammett of DeKalb, at the parsonage.

The association president, Mrs. William J. Baggis of DeKalb, who was to have given the address, was unable to be present and her place was taken by Dr. Hammett, who spoke on "The Needs of the Church". These needs were brought out from his listeners by means of questions and supplemented by those he has found in his experiences as district superintendent. He brought out the fact that there were 19 different organizations in the Methodist churches and spoke of the help these could be to the pastor if a representative of each organization could meet with the pastor and with each other early in the year and discuss their plans. He urged that members select their interests by study of group heads. Dr. Hammett stressed keeping a church history, as this is particularly helpful to the new minister.

The Presbyterian Auxiliary held their Mothers and Daughters banquet Tuesday evening, in the Presbyterian church. The Candelighters Society planned the banquet and the Guild served. There were 88 present, mothers and daughters. The tables were attractively decorated in fall flowers and foliage. A tempting banquet pleased all.

Mrs. J. Barre Lennon was chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Mark Keller, president of the Auxiliary, gave an introductory talk, introducing Mrs. Harry Edwards, as toastmistress for the evening. Mesdames Lennell, Keller and Edwards filled their positions in a most satisfactory and gracious manner.

Dorothy Goeke was the first on the program, playing a sweet violin solo, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. O. F. Goeke at the piano.

Betty Lazier gave a very lovely toast to the mothers.

Betty Merriman sang a very appropriate solo.

Mrs. W. C. Durkes gave a toast to the daughters which was very unusual and entertaining. It was in rhyme and she cleverly mentioned all the daughters.

Miss Hitchcock closed the program with a most interesting talk. She mentioned the prominent workers of the church from the beginning who laid the foundation, up to the present time.

Mrs. E. G. Becky of Sterling; and Mrs. Howard Fisher of Bradford, Ill. were out of town guests at the enjoyable affair.

To make the evening complete delicious refreshments were served by the leaders of the evening, Miss Audrey Stewart and the Misses Randall Wulbrandt and Harold Stewart.

Miss Mildred Hartman led in the closing prayer. Everybody went to their homes having spent a most enjoyable evening.

NRA A SPLENDID STEP TOWARD BETTER ORDER OF THINGS.

More and more it becomes clear that no matter what direction the great NRA program is taking it can hardly be regarded as more than a tentative first step.

If it fails, the second step will undoubtedly be productive of even more fundamental and far-reaching changes than those which have already taken place. We cannot cancel a year's endeavor and sit back to wait for something to turn up. We are committed to a course of drastic action; if the first act flops, we can only make the second one a double dose.

But we do not believe that the step will fail. And it is in looking ahead to the course we must follow if and when this program has succeeded that we shall have to call on all the brain-power that the country possesses.

The NRA program is admittedly an emergency measure. It is an effort to surmount a crisis; as such, it has to meet the problems of the immediate present and let certain long-range objective wait.

Taken altogether, it is a magnificent thing. But it does leave untouched the fundamental issue of the modern world—the queer, illogical way in which the tremendous increase in mankind's productive capacity has been accompanied by unemployment and poverty.

For the present we are trying to meet that problem by imposing sharp checks on production. We are spending vast sums to keep down our production of such basic commodities as wheat, pork and cotton. We are putting oil production under a curb; we are fixing things so that the great manufacturers may keep from making more goods than they can sell.

For the period of the emergency, such steps are good. Sooner or later, however, we must find a better way of meeting the problem.

It is physically possible now for the world to produce at such a rate that every mortal can have all that he needs of everything. Somehow, once a fair measure of prosperity has been restored, we must find out how to do that. We shall have to start thinking about increasing production instead of checking it—our fields, our mines, our factories and our wells must bring forth more instead of less.

That is the direction toward which the next step after the NRA program must carry us.

THE FUTURE OF THE FOREST ARMY.

One of the most completely successful of all the items on the "new deal" program seems to be the forestry work of the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Some 300,000 young Americans who had no jobs and no prospects of any jobs last spring are hard at work, sending money home to their parents regularly, regaining their own self-respect, rebuilding their bodies—and doing a job of work that will be of vast benefit to the nation for years to come.

So well is the project working out that a person is inclined to wonder if it might not be a good thing to make this forest army a permanent affair.

To begin with, it is very probable that the nation will have a reservoir of unemployed young men for a good many years, no matter how fully prosperity returns. In the boom days of 1928 and 1929 we had more jobless men than it was pleasant to think about; the increasing use of labor-saving devices makes it look as if unemployment will continue to be a problem for a long time.

No one needs to be told anything today about the demoralizing effects of unemployment. No one needs to be told anything about the evils of the dole. The one sure way to avoid those evils is to find work for the men who need it; and a permanent forest army would provide upwards of a quarter of a million extra jobs, year in and year out.

All of this, of course, would be pretty expensive. You can't feed, house, clothe and pay 250,000 men for a year without spending a good deal of money. The federal government has plenty of claims on its purse already.

But it might be money well spent.

It would be hard to overestimate the financial value of the work such an army could do if it stayed on the job year in and year out. To save the timber resources we have, to develop new ones, to prevent soil erosion, to prevent floods—those are jobs well worth doing, even if they are costly.

Certainly the question deserves serious consideration. This forest army is too good an outfit to be discarded off-hand.

We have the right to make sure of our liberty which is all the more respected when it is known that we are capable of guaranteeing it.—Premier Edouard Daladier of France.

I venture to say that the government will soon be facing the proposition of price-fixing. In no other way can the masses be protected.—Senator William E. Borah.

Advertising can serve an excellent function in increasing volume of sales and so lowering costs and permitting low prices to prevail.—Prof. Rexford G. Tugwell, assistant secretary of agriculture.

The trip to Pet Land was real short. "Gee, kids, this is a lot of sport," said Goldy. "I've had lots of pets I never will forget."

"Why, once I owned a little cat that said, 'meow-er,' just like that. The way it cuddled in my lap made it a dandy pet."

"Why, say, I had a dog, one time and every time I put a dime right in its mouth," said Duncy, "it would run down to the store."

"Would you bring some candy, yes, siree! And bring a bagful back to me." "Oh, my but you are a dreamer," Scouty cried. "You make me roar."

Right near the dog house was a cat and Windy shouted. "Look at that! That cat lives in a basket that's supposed to be for clothes."

"However, that is nothing new, because that's what most all house cats do. Such baskets make a comfy place to snooze in, goodness knows."

While all the rest were looking round, wee Duncy shouted, "I've found a dandy tame canary. It is singing merrily."

"To prove to you that it is not dumb, I'll make it hop out on my thumb. That's what it does, the minute that I say, come out for me!"

THE TRYING AGE—I

The years from 3 to 6 in the life of the child are with excellent warrant called the "trying age." The infant and the toddler by virtue of their almost complete helplessness and their dependence upon us, command and receive our attention. But having gotten on its feet and having mastered language to a point where it can make itself heard, if not understood, the pre-school child is more or less thrown on its own resources and as a result suffers not infrequently from neglect.

This period is trying for parent and child alike for a multitude of reasons. Not uncommonly when a new baby comes into the family it demands and receives most of the mother's attention, and the older child, heretofore king of the house, feels itself dethroned and even shut off from the rest of the household.

Trivial as this occurrence may appear to the adult, it is at times a major tragedy to the child. Not infrequently, from the time of the appearance of a new baby in the family may be dated the development in the older child of a variety of behavior disorders, such as bed-wetting, speech defects, temper tantrums and other disturbances to itself and the rest of the family generally.

But even when there is no new baby in the family the period is still trying. When the child is in its infancy, its will and its preferences are neither strong nor troublesome. It is fed on schedule, it does not have much to say about the foods it likes.

In the properly organized household, the youngster is put to bed at appointed times and usually goes to sleep without much fuss. But, reaching the ripe age of 3, the child becomes a personage in its own rights. It is hard for the child to realize why it must eat its food at lunch time and why it may not dawdle along. Bedtime is a plague, coming at the most interesting point in the evening. Usually it rebels against even the simplest discipline to which it is subjected.

TRAINING TABLE MAY COME BACK TO THE BIG TEN

Number Of Coaches In Support Of Zuppke Of Illinois

Chicago, Sept. 14 —(AP)—Return of the football training table, which almost wrecked the Western Conference after it was banned 28 years ago, was advocated today by a majority of the "Big Ten" gridiron coaches. They were of the opinion that the reestablishment of the training table, with the gridiron hopefuls eating regular meals at the expense of the universities, would be a wise venture.

Robert M. Zuppke, veteran coach of the University of Illinois, who first suggested the return of the training table, said that many of the football players were forced to eat frugally, some of them spending only 16 cents a day, and that they were entitled to get at least wholesome food as a reward for their services.

Zuppke's proposal found support from Clarence Spears, coach of Wisconsin; Ossie Solem of Iowa; and Harry Kipke, coach at Michigan, which withdrew from the "Big Ten" in 1905, after fighting for the retention of the training table. Solem said that many of his players were not getting enough to eat to keep them in condition last year, and that in one case three men were living in two rooms, cooking their own meals so they could remain in school.

Clark Shaughnessy, new football coach at the University of Chicago refused to enter the argument, while Sam Willaman of Ohio State was the only coach to object, declaring that he never considered the training table, which was banished from the conference because of charges that it resulted in the over-emphasis of football and promoted professionalism.

CUBS CREDITED WITH FIRST WIN OVER THE GIANTS

Bush And Team Copped Game Under Adverse Conditions

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Chicago's home-loving Cubs were credited with a first down today in the drive toward their goal of six straight victories over the league-leading New York Giants and a real place in the National League pennant picture. But there still were five games to go for a touchdown.

The Cubs weathered the difficulties of a rainy day, Carl Hubbell's famed pitching and what power the Giant's bats could muster to win the opener 2 to 0 yesterday. It started out to be a doubleheader but after delays that totaled more than two hours had kept a crowd of 20,000 hanging around until 6 o'clock to see the finish of one contest, the second game was postponed, making a bargain bill today with another to follow tomorrow.

So far as the Giants were concerned the whole program was a washout. Their margin over the Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates, who also won a game, was reduced to 6½ games and while they still can clinch the pennant with only nine more victories in 17 games, even if the Cubs and Pirates should win all they have left, they would be ahead of Chicago by only a single percentage point in such an event.

Settled In One Inning It took just one inning to give the Cubs the decision after the game finally was started and the rest was just a matter of dodging showers and the pitching of Guy Sturdy, Bill Herman, Kiki Cuyler and Riggs Stephenson rapped singles to produce the run in the first. Then after a pass had loaded the bases Adolph Camilli forced Frank Demaree at second and Bill Terry juggled the relay for an attempted double play long enough to let Cuyler score the second tally.

Time was called in the third for nearly two hours and the contest finally was finished in the rain. After the long delay Manager Terry removed Hubbell and let Bill Shores finish the duel with the highly effective Bush who gave nine hits and three walks but was invincible when he struck a tight spot.

Pittsburgh did its share toward climbing up on the Giants and holding a second place tie with the Cubs by turning back the Boston Braves 1 to 0 behind the four-hit pitching of Larry French. It was the Pirates' third straight shutout.

Dean Wins No. 20

The St. Louis Cardinals also got the benefit of fine pitching and downed the Brooklyn Dodgers 4 to 1. Dizzy Dean gave only five hits for his 20th victory of the season while his young battery mate, Buddy Lewis, made three of the six blows off Owen Carroll, including a home run with one on.

World Series To Be Discussed Today

Chicago, Sept. 14—(AP)—Representatives of all major league clubs still having a mathematical chance of winning championships were called before Baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis today to arrange for the 1933 world series.

The series will open at the park of the National League champions, but the date has not been definitely set.

It was expected that the proposal to permit each championship club to sell single admission tickets to the fall classic, instead of the usual strips, would be accepted. The series will start Oct. 3.

"Dizzy" Dean Wins His 20th. Of Year

St. Louis, Sept. 14 —(AP)—The never modest Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean was prouder of himself—just a little—than ever today. Dizzy pitched his 20th victory of the season against the Brooklyn Dodgers yesterday, the first Cardinal to accomplish the feat since 1928, when Jesse Haines and Wee Willie Sherdel reached the two-score figure.

But "No. 20 is just a breeze," wasn't all Jerome Herman had to talk about today. The fans are going to give him a day Sunday, with an automobile and various other gifts thrown in.

much improved by this work and will be more livable for the hundreds of children who will make it their home for a part of the coming year.

Children who enter the elementary school for the first time this fall must be six years old by February 1, 1934.

As a matter of information, it is suggested that all children under school age enter immediately, thereby making it economical from the standpoint of the learning institution as well as a saving on the time of the truant officer. All children between the ages of seven and sixteen must be enrolled in school.

The Rochelle high school reports a high enrollment, having registered 330 students on the opening day, Sept. 5th.

The public graded schools reported a decreased enrollment, numbering 417 pupils. The enrollment will be increased somewhat by the enrollment of pupils absent from the city on the opening day.

Rochelle Post is in excellent condition, which greatly reflects on Wm. Johnson, retiring commander, and his efficient adjutant, Roy Walker as well as the officers with which he was associated.

The club rooms are as fine as any enjoyed by any other organization in Rochelle and the Post is active in sponsoring things conducive to the welfare of the community.

It is expected that favorable action will be taken for the firing squad, color guard and a representative body of Legion men in the Moose parade to be held here on a Saturday night early in October, probably Oct. 2 or 9th. THE IRON RATION

By Dr. Joseph Fort Newton

In the World War, Chris Morley tells us, each man at the front carried emergency food; a bit of hard-tack and pressed beef, or something of the sort. If he got out of from his own line, or if he went down in No Man's Land, he would have a bite to eat. It was called "the iron ration," and Morley is quick to see in it a parable of us all.

A business man, he says, kept a small parcel in his office locker. It contained a shirt, some collars, and a little cash—enough for a day or a night. If things got too bad—things in general, or the particular thing that irked him—and he could not stand it any longer, he could grab his parcel and go off somewhere. As it happened he did not have to use it, but it helped him a lot to know that he had it.

Each of us keeps a hard-tack to munch betimes, or something to turn to, when we are hungry or hard pressed. If the load gets too heavy, or the grind too dull, or things threaten to crush us, we want to feel that we can get away—that we are not owned by anybody, or tied down to anything, and can be free. It may be an illusion, a game we play with ourselves, or just a trick of the mind, but it helps us.

If we know what it is that a man falls back on at such times, we understand him better. It may be a friend, a faith, a book, an old memory he goes back to, or a secret dream he would never tell any soul. But it is not to be some little thing, a fancy, a hobby, some token of value to no one else but precious to him—something he is very shy about and keeps hidden away in the locker of his heart. Anyway, it does him good to know that he has it, whether he ever needs it or not.

My iron ration might be silly to another, as his would be odd to me. No matter: such things help, even if it be only the pretense of an escape we would surely hurry back from if we got it. But when we do need it, when life hems in and we are at the end of our rope, then our hidden hard-tack, or whatever it is, saves us. Just a piece of bread, blessed and broken long ago, has helped millions—and still helps!

Word was received Monday from the state board of examiners that Wilbur L. Stitzel, brother of Dr. H. G. Stitzel of Marion, had successfully passed the examination of the Iowa State Board of Chiropractic, in Des Moines.

Dr. W. L. Stitzel is from Dixon, Ill., and received his education from the National Chiropractic college at Chicago, from which he recently graduated, specializing in physiotherapy. For the past two months he has been assisting his brother, Dr. H. G. Stitzel, here.

He will have complete charge of the Dr. Stitzel office here during the next month, while Dr. H. G. Stitzel and his family take an extended vacation in the west. The junior doctor has had splendid training in the profession which, combined with a natural adaptability, assures success in his chosen field.

Dr. and Mrs. H. G. Stitzel and their daughter, Lois and Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Stitzel, of Atlantic, Iowa, will leave Saturday on a trip to Salt Lake City, Reno, Nev., and Oregon. They will travel down the coast to Los Angeles, where the men will take a short advanced course in chiropractic, and from San Diego they will go to Tucson, Ariz., where they will visit with Mrs. Stitzel's brother, Charles E. Hall.

They expect to be gone about a month. Dr. Stitzel's sister, Mrs. J. B. Sheldon of Dixon, will assist Dr. W. L. Stitzel here during their absence.

LAMONT QUILTS POST AS STEEL INDUSTRY HEAD

Hints Too Much Government Regulation Of Business

First Event Of Its Kind In Dixon Saturday And Sunday

New York, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Charles M. Schwab was mentioned today as probable successor to Robert P. Lamont, steel "czar" who stepped out yesterday with a declaration that government regulation of industry has begun and "no one knows how far it may go."

Lamont's resignation as president of the American Iron & Steel Institute, a post he had held for 13 months at a salary said to be $100,000 a year, came as a surprise to all except "inside" quarters.

Talk about the reasons for the resignation was rife. The New York Times said "the tone of his letter of resignation clearly indicated a lack of sympathy with the NRA." Institute officials said the resignation was not a protest against the recently adopted steel code.

Lamont, who was Secretary of Commerce under President Hoover, was named steel "dictator" in 1932 and his task was described at the time as co-ordination of business practices, stabilization of prices and furthering the institute's value as a service organization to members.

The following paragraph was taken from a letter received by one of the purchasing agents in the office. The writer is the President of a company manufacturing a number of nationally advertised products.

"The real object of this letter is to tell you how much I enjoyed your several pavilions throughout the Fair grounds, and especially the main building with the revolving tower. I had a family party with me and we went to your various exhibits many times during our stay. The very last purchase we made in Chicago before going to the train was to go to your branch in the Hall of Science, where we got a delicious drink. I found the service excellent, thorough and courteous treatment on the part of your representatives. I was delighted to see, whenever I went into your places, that they were crowded to the doors, showing that everyone was more than satisfied with what they received. This is sent in appreciation and I thought, possibly you might be glad to hear of our own experiences as guests of your city."—From Walgreen's Pepper Pod.

Other classes include: pony race, high school and trick horses, high jumpers and rodeo stars. The Dickey Stables have been buzzing with activity for weeks as the many youthful and mature riders have been fitting themselves for this outdoor festival.

The imported rodeo riders with their wild western costumes and Wyoming wiles are expected to give the spectators a whiff of the notorious Pendleton and Cheyenne "round-up" days.

It is hoped that everyone will brighten this machine age with a glance Saturday and Sunday at an aggregation of honest-to-goodness horses and competent riders.

If you have something to sell and are in a big hurry to sell it, let the classified advertising department of The Dixon Telegraph prove its ability as a speedy and efficient sales medium.

Independent Producers Turn Down Plea Of Pure Milk Assn.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Two men were arrested for violence today as a strike of dairy farmers supplying Chicago with milk spread into new territory.

The first violence took place at Harvard, Ill., near Woodstock in the center of the strike area. Herman Page, a farm hand employed by Joseph Stein, was arrested when he threw disinfectant into about 500 pounds of milk being delivered at a dairy by another farmer for shipment to Chicago.

A score of special deputy sheriffs surrounding the dairy to maintain order among picketers seized Page. Another picketer was taken in custody when he attempted to strike a deputy.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Prospects of 11-cent milk for Chicago and a continuation of the strike of independent producers were in store today.

Following an announcement last night by the Pure Milk Association that an increase of one cent a quart would be sought, with the added profits all to go to the farmers, E. L. Bost, Harvard, Ill., leader of the insurgents said the strike would continue.

"The matter of price is secondary with the farmers," he said. "They must first abandon the base surplus system of marketing, provide a market for all producers meeting the qualifications of the Chicago Board of Health, and establish a flat price for all milk and cream."

"Not until those conditions have been met will the strike be called off."

The announcement of the decision to raise the price of milk from 10 to 11 cents a quart in Chicago was made by Don N. Geyer, secretary-manager of the Pure Milk Association following an all day meeting with the dealers.

Predicts $2 Milk

"If Secretary of Agriculture Wallace approves the retail price of 11 cents a quart, the base price of milk a hundredweight to farmers will jump well over $2," Geyer declared.

"This pertains to milk with cream percentage is 35 pounds to the hundredweight. The base price on blended milk will be slightly under $2. The present base price for milk is $1.75."

Another meeting he said was called for today to consider a recommendation for cream prices.

Meanwhile, Bost said that officials of the Pure Milk Association failed in an attempt to divert the farmers of Woodstock, Ill., district from the strike when they met with them last night.

"Their entreaties were voted down overwhelmingly," he said. "And the farmers decided to stick with us and see this strike clear through."

No milk was delivered to 13 receiving stations in Kane and McHenry counties yesterday, he said.

Bureau Co. Woman Appeals Decision Of County Court

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 13.—(AP)—Anna Pittman today appealed to the Supreme Court from a Bureau County Court decision overruling her objections to a condemnation suit filed by the state Highway Department in connection with plans to build a paved road across her farm.

Mrs. Pittman said that one hard road already bisects her farm and that the proposed highway would cut in four parts.

It is your duty to carry Accident Insurance. If you use an automobile you can protect your family for the amount of $1,000 for 1 year for $1.25.

Most Beautiful Girl in Fair

The most beautiful girl employed on the grounds of the Chicago World's Fair—that is what seven judges called Miss Catherine Palmer, 22, blonde Century of Progress cashier. She was chosen from a field of 57 to rule as queen of Automotive Week.

She is the second time that Levinsky has assumed the role of philanthropist. The first was in 1931 when he met Turf Griffith in the Chicago Stadium, guaranteeing Griffith $25,000, Levinsky took a ten round licking and got $2,000 out of it. After he had paid off his help he had only coffee and doughnut money left.

Tomorrow night's bout will be promoted by Sammy Wolfe, nationally known Chicago ringsider, who has hopes that the gate receipts will reach $50,000. He says it will cost him $40,000 to stage the fight.

Deposed "Champion" To Start Attempt At Come Back

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey, who never gave Horace Greely a tumble on the latter's suggestion to go west for golden glory, brings his comeback venture as a former world's heavyweight champion, to the middleweight tomorrow night, meeting King Levinsky, the colorful clown from Chicago's Ghetto, in a ten round bout at Comiskey Park, the home of the White Sox.

It will be the first time that Sharkey has ever boxed in the middle west. The Chicago premiere of the fallen champion will be the start of the most pretentious comeback undertaken by a dethroned world's title holder. Twelve days after engaging Levinsky, Sharkey will meet one of his arch rivals, Tommy Loughran, the Philadelphia dancing master, in a 15 round skirmish in the Quaker City, on Sept. 2.

Hopes To Meet Camera

Beyond that, the former champion has visions of conquering a few more heavyweights and qualifying for a return battle with Primo Carnura, who knocked him out in six rounds, three months ago. He has hopes of fighting Carnura either at Miami in February, or in New York next summer.

Win, lose, or draw, Levinsky will wind up taking a financial knock-out tomorrow night, because Sharkey will receive a $25,000 guarantee, with the privilege of 40 per cent of the gate receipts, while Levinsky, the reformed Maxwell Street fish pedler, has no guarantee, and will get 80 per cent of what's left after Sharkey has been paid and all expenses met.

This is the second time that Levinsky has assumed the role of philanthropist. The first was in 1931 when he met Turf Griffith in the Chicago Stadium, guaranteeing Griffith $25,000. Levinsky took a ten round licking and got $2,000 out of it. After he had paid off his help he had only coffee and doughnut money left.

Tomorrow night's bout will be promoted by Sammy Wolfe, nationally known Chicago ringsider, who has hopes that the gate receipts will reach $50,000. He says it will cost him $40,000 to stage the fight.

For the LOVE of EVE

by Lucy Walling

BEGIN HERE TODAY
EVE BARNES, pretty assistant to EARLE BARNES, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, marries DICK RADER, a construction superintendent. Dick wants Eve to stop working but she refuses.

Unknown to Dick, Eve plays the stock market on borrowed money. ARLENE SMITH, stenographer at Bixby's, has struck on Eve's advice but loses all her money. SAM HOLTERIDGE, an advertising man employed by another store, is infatuated with Arlene.

MONA ALLEN, copy writer, dislikes Eve and is responsible for several errors at the office for which Eve is blamed. Several small thefts occur in the office. Then Eve's diamond ring disappears. Eve suspects Mona and demands that she return the ring. Mona gives it to her.

The building on which Dick has been working is completed and his employers tell him they will have no more work for him for at least two months. He and Eve spend a vacation visiting Eve's parents. The day after their return Eve is amazed when a construction superintendent, Dick, enters the office and asks for Miss Barnes.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXIV

EVE stared at the policeman. "What could he possibly want of her? 'I'm Miss Barnes,' she said. 'What is it?'"

"Headquarters wants to talk to you about that accident last Thursday night. The man who was hit has internal injuries and there's some question about your bill."

Eve insisted that she had been out of the state for two weeks and had returned only the day before. She turned to Arlene and Mrs. Penney to substantiate her statement but did not satisfy the officer.

"I'd call Mr. Barnes, the advertising manager, to tell you what I'm saying is the truth but he's out of town today," Eve explained.

"Well, you'd better come along and tell it to the sergeant," the officer told her.

Eve went with him, her eyes blazing. Why couldn't they have sent a plain clothes man instead of an officer in uniform? She insisted upon telephoning Dick who met her at the police station. Dick demanded to see the officer who had made the arrest the week before. When he arrived he confirmed the name but assured them Eve was not the girl.

"Who do you suppose could have used my name?" Eve asked Dick. He called for a description of the girl and immediately they guessed it must have been Mona Allen.

Back to the store went Eve, accompanied by the officer who had humiliated by the stares of the other employees as they passed.

MONA was at her desk when Eve and the policeman reached the advertising office. The girl's face blanched and a frightened look came into her eyes.

"There's the girl!" the officer said, pointing to Mona. "Thought you said your name was Eve Barnes! Well, you'd better come along with me. The sergeant wants to see you."

And Mona, without a word, obeyed.

"She'd rather see the sergeant than see me right now!" Eve told Arlene and Mrs. Penney. "She and some man were riding in a rented coupe last Thursday night and they crashed into another car on University Circle. Of course I was out of town and she thought she would get away with giving them my name!"

Next morning Eve followed Barnes to his private office as soon as he arrived. It was high time, she had decided, that he learned something of Mona Allen's indiscretions. Eve told him of the incident. He agreed with her that it was serious and then rang for Mona. He dismissed Eve, however, who had hoped to be present for the interview.

Mona did not reappear for at least half an hour. Then she came from Barnes' office, dabbing her eyes with a handkerchief, and passed through the room into the corridor.

"Tears!" sniffed Arlene. "She cried and I suppose he fell for it. Pretty soon she'll be back to tell you she's sorry. As though saying that will undo all the trouble she has caused. The little sneak!"

And that is exactly what Mona did. "I'm awfully sorry!" she told Eve in a contrite voice. "Will you forgive me?"

Eve felt obliged to say she would though the humiliation of that trip to police court still rankled.

"I suppose Barnes would fire her if she didn't have so much imagination. Her value does lie in her original ideas," Eve admitted.

"Yeah," drawled Arlene. "Too bad so many of them are misdirected!"

EVE longed for, yet dreaded the arrival of the time when Dick would go to work on a new construction job. It made her uneasy to see his savings disappearing for their living expenses. At the same time she was afraid his new job would take him away from Lake City. In more prosperous times his employers might have given him some choice in the matter. Now, she realized, he would be fortunate to get work on any terms.

It was an ordeal to reach the office promptly on those late summer mornings and it was an ordeal to endure the long hours at the store. Often when, with frayed nerves and aching heart, Eve tried to finish her copy so that she could meet Dick promptly at closing time, she thought of other wives she knew—wives like Esther who could, if they choose, take a nap in a cool, shaded room or spend the afternoon on an airy porch or lawn. And she thought anxiously of women like Mr. Bixby's wife and daughters at mountain or seaside resorts with nothing more arduous to do than to change from one charming costume to another.

She told herself that when her stock market investments materialized she, too, would have a pleasant, easy life.

Another thing that vexed Eve was her inability to take advantage of the many bargains that heaped Bixby's counters as the summer waned.

THIS was especially hard to endure because Arlene and Mona, whose wages were much smaller than hers, were buying liberally. Mona gleefully exhibited some new bit of finery after every pay day. "I doubt if she ever had $50 salted away in her life," Eve told Arlene after Mona had left the office one evening, wearing a new hat. "Do you suppose she ever looks ahead to all—ever thinks of investing for the future?"

"She was looking to the future when she bought that come-h
